

Testimony for Kevin:

I AM with you always!

Kevin approached me at work and told me that he has some health issues. He described the symptoms to me and told me that the doctor said that it could possibly be colon cancer. He was noticeably losing weight. He said that he knew that I am close with God and he wanted me to pray for him. I told him that everything would be all right. I told him the story about how Tina had cancer and it disappeared on the morning of the operation. We prayed that Kevin would be healed in the mighty name of Jesus.

Out of my mouth came the words "...be with Kevin and his wife as they go through this tribulation..."

It was unexpected; they just came right out on their own.

Kevin said that he felt at peace.

Kevin asked me to tell him about anything that I hear from The Lord regarding his situation then he left for home.

During the day I started feeling an uncomfortable bump in my nose. It felt like the bump was bleeding or running.

Throughout the day the word "Polyp" kept coming to mind...."polyp....polyp..."

Later that day the bump was gone.

The Lord said that Kevin's polyp would be gone soon too.

The next day I woke up at 5am. It was raining pretty hard outside. I felt that The Lord would stop the rain like usual so I could go to the car without getting wet. But, I was prompted to go out the front door and pray for it to stop anyway. I did.

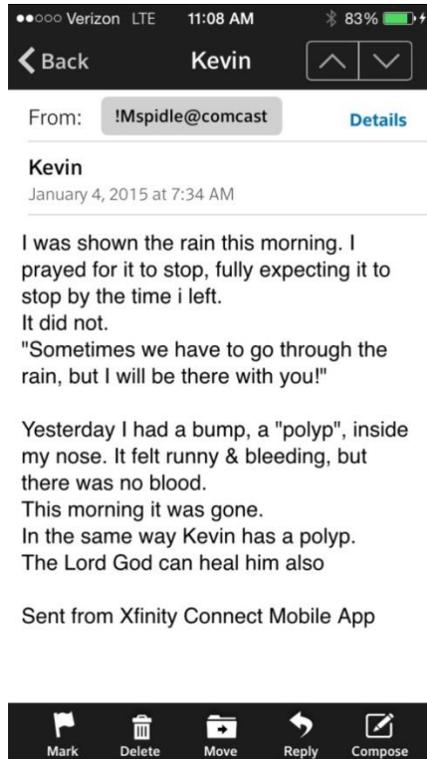

6:15am came and it was time for me to go. I opened the front door and it was still raining. It was not raining as hard as it was, but it was still enough to get me wet if I went out in it. I went out into the rain and got in the car. I sat there for a second and said "Lord, I thought that You would stop the rain."

The Lord responded "...sometimes we have to go through the rain...but I will be there with you..."

On the way to work I knew that this was the message that I was to give Kevin.

When I got to work Kevin was not there. He felt sick and had already gone home for the day.

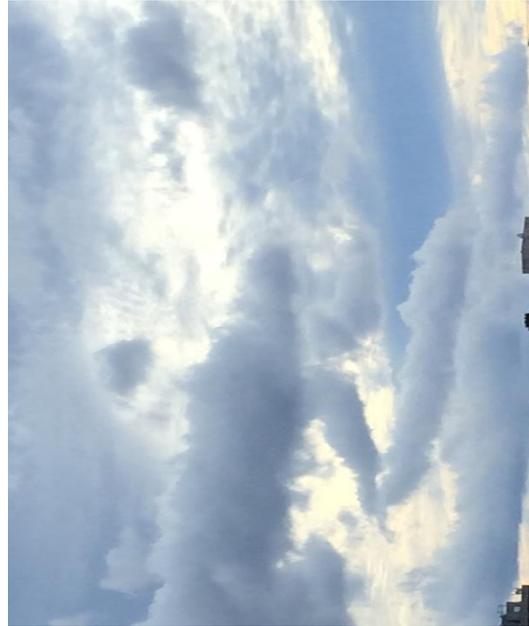

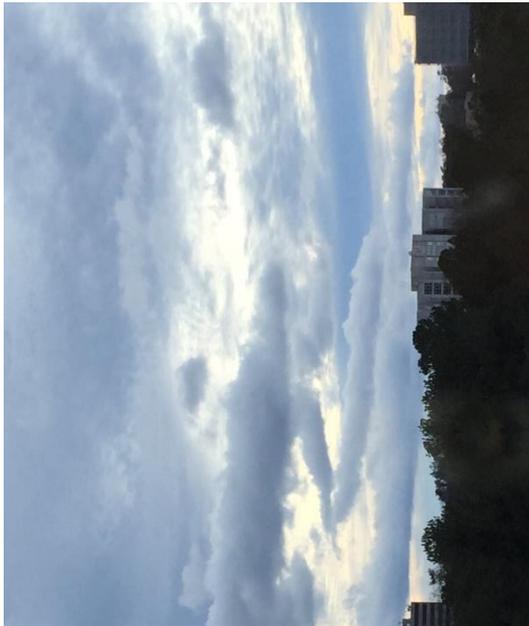

I sent myself an email about everything at 7:34am that morning. Here is a screenshot of it:

During the day I continued to pray to The Lord for Kevin.

The afternoon came and I could see that many clouds were coming across the sky. I was prompted to go outside.

This is what I saw: A father and son walking together, holding hands:

Deuteronomy 31:6

“Be strong and courageous.

Do not be afraid or terrified, for the LORD your God goes with you;

He will never leave you or forsake you.”

I told Kevin about these things when he came in to work that night. I told Kevin about the rain. I told Kevin about the nose “polyp” and that the doctor should look for polyps. I told him that just like mine they would soon be gone. I showed Kevin the Father and son in the clouds.

I continued to pray for Kevin...

I saw Kevin this morning at work.
He told me that he had his colonoscopy the other day.
He said that he was diagnosed with diverticulitis.
He said that the doctor removed 2 polyps.
One of them was 2cm.

He said he feels much better now and that now he had gained a pound since then.

Praise The Lord God Almighty! Praise The Lord Jesus Christ – The Miraculous Healer!

Today's verse of the day:

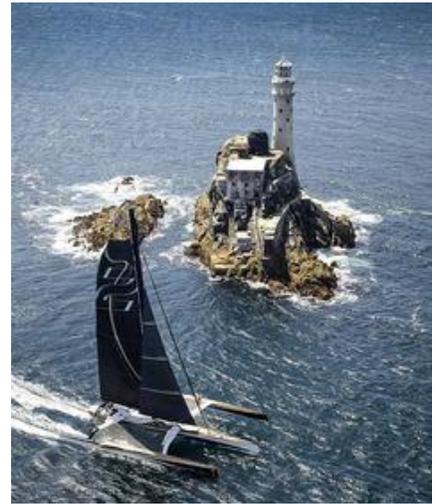

Today I got to work and met Kim in the parking deck. We talked for a few minutes. As I headed to go into the building Kevin came out into the parking deck. (My talk with Kim delayed me just enough so I could meet Kevin. How is that for "Just in time!") Kevin said that he is worried about the results of the tests and asked if we could pray. We prayed. As I was going upstairs The Lord reminded me that my father faced diverticulitis about 10 years ago without it returning. I called Kevin and relayed this information to him as well.

May the peace of The Lord be with you Kevin.

Jesus calming the storm.

Boats sailing safely past the rocks.

Kevin received his test results about a week later.
The results showed that the polyps were non-cancerous.

Thank You Dear Heavenly Father, Lord God in Heaven, Lord Jesus!
You are mighty and awesome and worthy of all glory, and honor, and praise!

Amen!
